OFFICIAL.

War Department, Adjutant General's Office. } Washington, Dec. 7, 1861. Captain William R. Howe, assisting adjuas absent without leave, is exouerated from such charge, he having had proper authority for his absence.

E. D. TOWNSEND, Assistant Adjutant General.

Headquarters First Army Corps, Washington, D. C., Dec. 3, 1864. CIRCULAR No. 2.

In reply to the numerous letters of inquiry from persons desiring to enter the 1st Corps, now being raised, the following is communicated as embodying all the information yet ob-

I-As TO ENLISTED MEN. 1. All enlistments and musters in are to be made in this city. 2. Any Veteran, who has served two years, has been honorably discharged, and is physically qualified, may enlist in the Corps for one, two or three years. 3. Those enlisting will receive from the Government a boun'y of $300 as soon as they are mustered in, and, in addition, the regular instalments from the Government, in proportion to the period of enlistment, as follows: $100 for one year's service, one-third paid on enlistment: $200 for two years' service, one-third on enlistment; $300 for three years' service, one-third on enlistment. 4. They will be credited to the quota of the district in which they or their families may be domiciled and will, therefore, be entitled to local bounties.

5 Free transportation will be furnished them to Washington by any Provost Marshal. It is only necessary that the applicant should satisfy the Provost Marshal that he comes under the provision of paragraph 2, and that the application is made in good faith.

6. On arriving in Washington and reporting at the Soldiers' Rest, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Depot, Veterans will be cared for and enlisted and paid premptly. They will be sent to the camp of organization, Camp Cliffburne, and will be formed into companies and regiments as they arrive-personal preferences being regarded when the good of the service will permit.

7. The best arms in the possession of the Government will be furnished these troops, and they will be allowed to retain their arms when honorably discharged. II-AS TO OFFICERS.

1. Persons desiring Commissions must make written applications to the Adjutant General of the army, setting f-rth their Post office address, the date of original entry into service, and with what rank, the organization in which service was rendered, the date and cause of discharge, and the rank at the time of discharge. Testimonials from commanders may accompany such applications. 2. Should the papers be favorably considered, the applicants will be severally notified, by mail or telegraph, when to appear before the Examining Board established by the War Department, and will receive appointments to such grades as the War Department may de-3. As soon as the letters of appointment are given, officers may be detailed to secure the enlistment of a certain number of Veteranstheir commissions, with rank and pay from da e of acceptance of appointment, being given when the men are secured It should be understood that the enlistments are to be consummated here, and an officer can do no more than to use his influence in persuading the men to come here and enlist. Officers awaiting action on their papers can occupy the time in this way, and collect parties and send them on, securing a statement as to the number from the Provost Marshal. The proper credit will in all cases be given

The actual and necessary expenses of such officers will be refunded to them. By order of Major General Hancock. FINLRY ANDERSON,

Assistant Adjutant General. The First Corps-Notice to Veterans.

HEADQUARTERS 1ST ARMY CORPS, WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1, 1864. veterans desiring to enlist in the 1st Army Corps, to be organized under the recent order of the War Department, should report in person at the office of Col. C. F. Johnson, Soldiers' Rest, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Depot, Washington. They will then be conducted to the barracks, where they will be critically examined, and, if found duly qualified, immediately mustered into the service.

By order of Major General Hancock. FINLEY ANDERSON, Assistant Adjutant General.

ordered by the Department, and at the contract prices, whether the quantities exceed or fall short of those estimated. Each proposal must be signed by the individual or firm making it, and must specify a price, and lut one price, for each and every article named in the schedule. Should any articles be required which are not enumerated, they are to be furnished at the lowest market prices. If the Department shall see fit to order them from the contractor having the contract for similar articles; and if the contractors and the Department do not agree, then the Department may have the article furnished by any other person or persons who will furnish it at a price lower than that demanded by Blank forms for proposals will be furnished at the Department to persons applying for them; and, as without uniformity therein the Department would find it difficult to make a decision, none w be taken into consideration unless substantially The head of the Department will in all cases decide whether the terms of the contract have been complied with, and reserves the power to annul the contract upon any failure to comply in a reasonable time.

Bords, with approved security, are to be given by the person or persons contracting; and, in case of failure to supply the articles, the contractor and his sureties shall be liable for the forfeiture specified in such bond as liquidated damages.

The contract will be awarded to the lowest and best bidder; the best bid to be determined after a careful examination for the purpose of ascertain ing which bid will, in its practical results, be most advantageous to the Department.

The Department reserves to itself the right to reject any bid where it is apparent that a part of the articles are bid for at very low and a part at very high rates, without proper regard to the cost of each for the purpose of affecting the aggregate of the bids under the estimate contained in the advertisement.
